

Smart Dress Only

Now it seems the townies run the show:
if you're nice there's nowhere left to go

Bad enough a small town getting this:
in the Second City it just takes the piss

Pick your way disgusted through the throng Am I the only one who thinks it's wrong?

*Well, not tonight you're not dressed right
get out of my sight
You won't last long your face is wrong
you don't belong
Smart dress only, sunshine*
